PROFILE

Todd has become a market expert within the Portland area and has completed landmark transactions in the Pearl District, Guild's Lake Industrial District, Swan Island, and Rivergate industrial areas. His work has required an understanding of current zoning laws and political nuances in each of the submarkets.

Todd has completed several of the largest investment sales recorded in the Portland marketplace since 1995 and corporate relocation of over 1,000 employees to a 500,000 square foot office campus in Vancouver, Washington. This business has further enhanced his relationships with local property owners and institutional clients.
